Rhede Island-Conn. League Standing.

Under ideal weather conditions on Saturday at Sachem park, the local season in league baseball got a good start, both home teams winning and showing themselves strong finishers by pushing over the winning runs after the other fellows had been the first to score. It was a double header opening, the first of the kind on the

Nothing more doing in the scoring line until Westerly is at bat in the eighth, but stuck to the game until the eighth, when another bit of bad flinging by Marra and a couple of errors gave Westerly 3 runs and what looked gave Westerly 3 runs and what looked like a safe lead. But Bill Riley and Con Crowley rallied the rooters and the C. A. C.'s again tied it up, getting two tailies on Bryor's error, a pass, a single by McManus, and Aitken's error. Casey's single scored McManus with the tieing run. Westerly was out in order in the ninth, but the C. A. C.'s the C. A. C.'s again tied it up, getting two tailies on Bryor's error, a pass, a single by McManus, and Aitken's error. Casey's single scored McManus with the tieing run. Westerly was out in order in the ninth, but the C. A. C.'s were there with the wallop after Marra was out to pitcher. Fud Sullivan singled and stole. Kane's hit boosted him along and McIntrye's safety brough him in.

Outside of two innings pitcher Marra twirled puzzling ball, and he also had good support, in which Jupes Mc-Intyre's double play, unassisted, was the dazzling feature, when he gobbled a fly on the base line and then opened the speed clutch and beat it across second bag ahead of J. The Chinese government, while tt collects a part of its revenue from customs, relies largely upon the prov inces to supply revenue, and arbitrarily names each year the sum which each province must supply, leaving to the officers of that province the methods by which this is obtained. The consequence is that each province is permitted to collect a tax on goods entering it from adjacent provinces and this custom has been extended to the subdivision of the provinces, so that goods in transit are frequently compelled to pay taxes every few miles. As a consequence, the interior taxes, known as "likin" become not only the terror of importers, but sometimes almost prohibitory.

SURELY HAD MONEY'S WORTH.

Uncle Hod Had Come Far to Get Itand He Got It.

There being no dentist in the little town where he resided Uncle Hod Rowdybush had gone to the county seat to have an aching tooth ex tracted. "I see it's one of your large molars," said the dentist at whose office he called, "and it will come pretty hard. Don't you think you'd better take gas?"

"I don't know," answered Uncle Hod. "Does it cost anything extra?" "Yes, it will be two dollars if you take gas and one dollar if you don't." 'How long does it take to pull it that way?"

"It won't seem any time at all to to wake up immediately and the tooth Well Seasoned Wood you. You go to sleep and you seem Uncle Hod reflected. "Well," he said, "I've come 27 miles to have this tooth pulled and I think I'm entitled to the satisfaction of knowing when you yank it out-to say nothin' of savin' a dollar. I don't want

From the manner in which Uncle Hod groaned during the subsequent operation it was inferred that he had at fully a dollar's worth of "satisfaction." -Youth's Companion.

CAME TO HIM AS INSPIRATION. When Mr. Sankey First Sang the Famed "Ninety and Nine."

The story of "Ninety and Nine," the well-known hymn the music for which Mr. Ira D. Sankey improvised in a burst of deep feeling, was told by Rev. Dr. C. E. Locke, at the funeral of Mr. Sankey. The evangelist had found a little poem, "The Lost Sheep," in a Scotch newspaper, so runs Dr. Locke's account in the Brooklyn Eagle, and had clipped it. One night in Edinburgh Mr. Moody asked him to sing. Mr. Moody had just finished his sermon, "The Good Shepherd." Mr. Sankey had no thought of composing a new song, but as he used to tell the
